REDUCING, REUSING, AND RECYCLING PLASTI

Accumulation of plastic objects and particles in the Earth's environment adversely affects humans, wildlife, and their habitat. Reducing, reusing, and recycling plastic is the most sustainable way to reduce plastic waste. Aware of this, the cadets of the NCC MES Ponnani College Unit collected plastic bottles, covers, etc. from houses and premises. By using these used materials NCC cadets created many things using their own ideas. We were able to make about 20 items from this plastic. They mostly made home decor items and it was a good experience to them.

Report

On the 1st of December 2022, the Kaizen Business Forum, in collaboration with the Department of Commerce and Management Studies, spearheaded a campus cleaning drive aimed at instilling a sense of social responsibility among students, encouraging them to contribute to the upkeep of their academic spaces actively. The initiative primarily targeted the surroundings of the Department of Commerce and Management, as well as the boy's room. 91 Students from the first, second, and third years of the BBA program actively engaged in the cleaning activities, showcasing a collective commitment to the welfare and cleanliness of their academic environment. The program was coordinated by Dr. Asha K Moideen and Dr. Nesiya M. The student coordinator of this program was Mr. Mohammed Aflah.

The cleaning drive commenced promptly at 10:30 am, symbolizing the commitment of the participating students towards maintaining a clean and environmentally friendly campus. The event aimed not only to enhance the physical appearance of the designated areas but also to cultivate a sense of responsibility and pride among the student community. The event was a joint effort between the Kaizen Business Forum and the Department of Commerce and Management Studies, highlighting the importance of collaborative initiatives for the betterment of the campus community.

In conclusion, the Kaizen Business Forum and the Department of Commerce and Management Studies are committed to organizing such initiatives in the future, reinforcing the importance of social responsibility and community engagement within the academic community.

Report on Mass Campus Cleaning Drive at MES Ponnani College

On the 17th of November, a commendable mass campus cleaning drive took place at MES Ponnani College, starting from 2 p.m. Twelve departments actively participated in this initiative, contributing to the collective effort to maintain a clean and healthy environment on the campus.

The Geology Department demonstrated exceptional dedication and teamwork, earning them the well-deserved 1st prize. Their commitment to cleanliness and environmental stewardship was truly commendable.

Following closely, the English Department secured the 2nd prize, showcasing their enthusiasm for the cause and contributing significantly to the success of the cleaning drive.

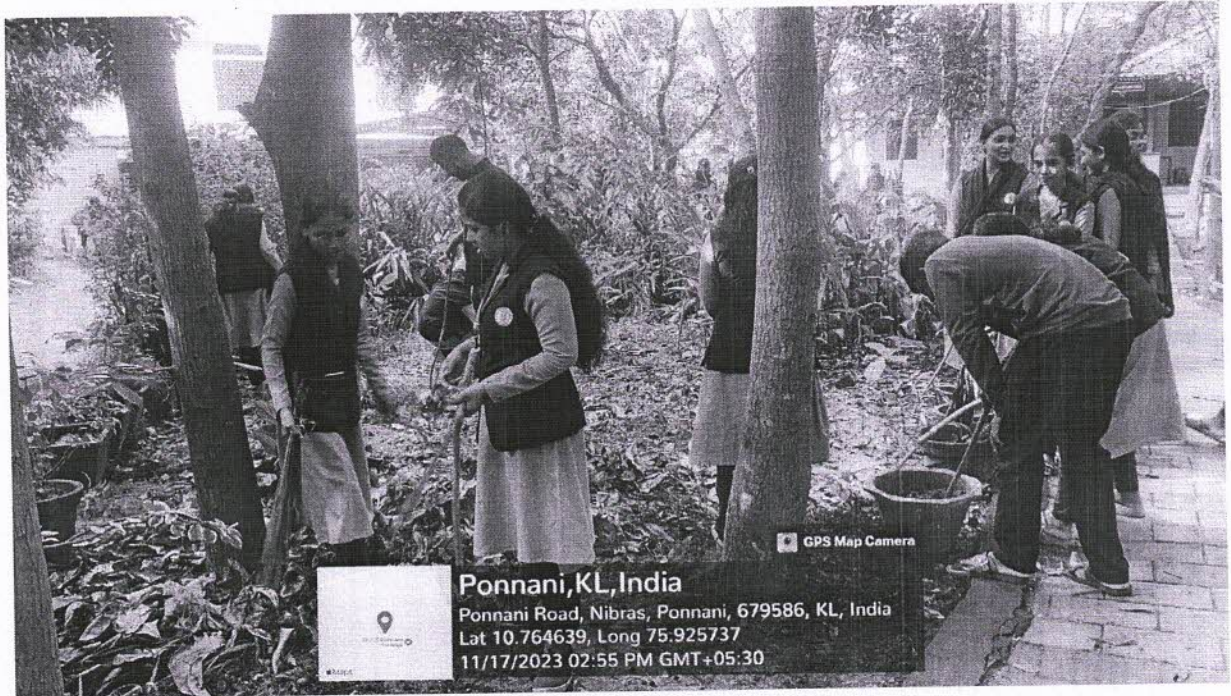

The event not only fostered a sense of responsibility among the students but also highlighted the importance of collaborative efforts in maintaining the campus's cleanliness. Such initiatives contribute to a positive and conducive learning environment for all members of the college community.

It is hoped that this success will serve as inspiration for future cleanliness drives and encourage continued active participation from all departments in preserving the beauty of the college campus.
