

MES PONNANI COLLEGE
Institutional Distinctiveness

2019-20

NSS Volunteers Participated in Health and Well Being Mapping Programme – 7 to 9 September 2019

Kadalolam' - Seven days Special camp – 21-27, December, 2019

The NSS volunteers of the College very actively participated in the Post Flood Cleaning Mission in the flood affected areas nearby college and many of our volunteers also went to the most affected area like Kuttanad , Alappuzha .

NSS Volunteers Cleaning HF high School, Kainakary, Kuttanad, Alappuzha in the ‘Kuttanad Mega Cleaning Drive”, initiated by District Collector, Alappuzha.

Observed children’s day at Anappady school and conducted various programmes in the school.

The special Camp of the units was started on 18 December 2018, at Government Mappila UP school, Veliyankode and initiated and completed much of the pending beautification work of the school and installed a play area for the children of the school .

Also arranged a clean drive in the areas like Primary Health centre etc. Observed Human rights day by taking pledge against all the social evils in the society and conducted an awareness class .

Three of our volunteers Abdul Malik , Athira , Nandakishore participated in the National camp. Under the aegis of Malappuram district police and trauma care units of the district organised self defence programme and training to the girls students of the college a team under the leadership of Asmabi , senior civil police officer conducted the training .

As a part of national road safety day volunteers participated in transect walk conducted by Motor vehicle Department.

In association with Almanar eye hospital, volunteers conducted a survey in adopted village. The volunteers also planted Jack fruit saplings in campus. The volunteers of the two NSS units regularly checking the cleanliness of the college by keeping it Eco friendly and plastic free campus.

The units also collected a sum of money on palliative day and distributed to the needy.

The volunteers also visited the dialysis centre of Ponnani taluk hospital on world kidney day and spent a day with them.